Grosse Pointe Theatre Youth on Stage COVID Policy

At the current time, face masks are not required to be worn during rehearsals/classes. Due to the uncertainty of COVID outbreaks, however; at any time, Grosse Pointe Theatre reserves the right to require face masks be worn by students participating in productions or classes. The safety of the students is always top priority. We ask that students wash hands frequently and use hand sanitizer, which will be provided. If a student is not feeling well, we ask that they not attend rehearsal/class. If a student tests positive for COVID, we require they notify YOS and stay home until the appropriate quarantine period has passed. If students have been exposed to a positive COVID individual, GPT YOS administrators will notify parents of other children of the potential exposure.

Virtual Class Contingency

GPT reserves the right to transfer rehearsals/classes to a virtual setting should the situation warrant it. If rehearsals/classes move to a virtual setting, all rehearsals/classes will continue as scheduled. In the event of a switch to a virtual environment, refunds will not be available.

Breach of this code of conduct:

1. If a student breaches the code of conduct, the most appropriate course of action for a minor or first time breach will be to remind him or her about the code of conduct and ask him or her to comply.
2. If, having followed the above step, the student continues to exhibit inappropriate behavior, she or he will receive a formal verbal warning. Parents/guardians will be informed of this action.
3. Any further persistent inappropriate behavior will result in a more serious course of action being imposed (for example, restriction/suspension from the program). Grosse Pointe Theatre’s Executive Director will be notified.
4. If these interventions are still not effective in helping the student to change his or her behavior, parents/guardians will be asked to remove the student from the program and Grosse Pointe Theatre’s Executive Director will be notified.
